Thanks to Lynette Downes and Jill Baker who prepared our church magazine "Lookout" for delivery this week. Extra copies are available today in the church foyer.

THANK YOU!

Also available today are a few copies of "Taonga".

"Taonga" is published by the Anglican Provincial Office and picks up news from the Anglican Church in Aotearoa New Zealand and Polynesia. It's well worth a read.

You can also source "Taonga" on:

The Day of Pentecost

Collect of the Day

Holy God,
blowing through creation:
No door can keep you out.
Unlock our hearts,
breathe on us anew;
that we may speak God's words of life,
through Jesus our Redeemer
and in the power of the Holy Spirit
now and forever. Amen

Readings

Psalm 104: 24-34,35b
Acts 2: 1-21
1 Cor 12: 3b-13
John 20: 19-23

Please join us for morning tea in the hall after the service.

Please pray for:

The people of Manchester as they mourn the loss of so many following the terrorist attack there this week. Pray for wisdom for the city leaders and courage for the people to go about their daily work without fear.

The residents and families of Ultimate Care Greytown as they cope with the uncertainty the surrounds the future of the residential care facility.

Next Sunday 4th June is Pentecost Sunday (when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples) and the Family Service.

One of the symbols for the Holy Spirit is fire.
Can you come to church next week wearing something red so we can all look like the fire of the Holy Spirit??

Blessings,

May

Archdeacon May Croft

Working Bee Saturday 10 June 9am onwards

Yes, it's that time again when the leaves rule at St Luke's. We need to keep them raked up as the piles retain dampness. The Memorial Garden and the street frontage also need a tidy Don't forget, the bark off the gum tree makes good kindling too! Many hands make light work. Come along.....

Rental for new Vicar and Family
Vestry is looking for a family home to rent for Reverend Harry, Aimee and their two children.

They are arriving in August. If you know of any places coming available please contact a Vestry member.
Thank you.
